Considering the influx of people from the provinces to the capital, it was impossible, the mayor said, 'to avoid sporadic cases in Rome, but measures had been added to isolate the sick and prevent contagion, with the result that in four months there had been but 23 cases and 11 deaths in the city, a less number (nan occurred to provide the city).

yard run. It was a well earned touchdown, the first blow to the hopes of Butte. The quarter ended with Moran failing to kick goal. The Second Quarter. The second quarter opened with Streibeck hurling a beautiful long toss to Wilkinson for a 24-yard gain. Bourquin, of the Butte team, attempted to follow suit, but he repeated some of his earlier errors by lifting the called on for another pass, but it was partially blocked and Ogden took the ball on its own 25-yard line. Play now vacillated about the center of the field for the next few minutes when like a flash Ogden found Butte' cardinal weakness just off the tack-les. The march to the goal started with Moran running back a Streibeck punt 20 yards. Stone took four at left tackle and then eleven. Boyle romped six in the same place and then four through at left guard, Evans gathered 16 through the weak spot, but on the next play, with only a snort gain, Butte braced and Evans was twice stopped on the line. Grigg failed to gain at the end and then Bourquin pulled his worst bull. In the shadow of his own goal he tried a forward pass. Stone gathered it in and, with no more ado, Boyle tolled off 8, yards on one side and Evans annexed the last 5 and rolled over the goal line, with Butte scrambling around trying to find him. It was touchdown No. 2. Again Stone missed goal, but by the narrowest margin. But it did not look like Ogden

The first touchdown was made after 14 minutes of play and the sec-ond after 11 minutes of the second quarter had passed. The first hali of the game finished with the score standing 10 to 0. Second Half.

If there was any conspiring done by the Butte team it was done during the intermission for methods changed when the last half began. In the third quarter the ball stuck like a leaden pillar within the thirteen yards of the Ogden goal. Ogden's forward was penalized, seemingly at the dictates of the bowling half-crazed fans, which brought the spheroid five yards nearer the goal. Then Grigg, the Butte captain, was thrown for a two-yard loss to his team. Bourquin called for a forward pass, hurling it himself. Donelly gobbled it a foot from the charmed line and dropped to the ground for Butte's first touc down. This made the scc:e 10 to There was more penalizing in the last quarter and the ball changed lands many times. Onside kicks were frequently attempted by Butte, without success, when, out of the uncertainey of hesitating action, Grigg went 16 yards over left tackle and Dieebourns switched to a forward pass, instead of a kick from the puzzling speed formation. Donnelly glommed the ball for an 18-yard gain. Another pass was tried and Bourquin suot the ball into Grigg's arms for sout the ball into origin arms for 8 yards more.
